In Memoriam

Rose Deninis

A face full of life, a personality abounding in charm and goodness, a bright smile, joy, friendship, a joke and a song ... lost to eternity, but always remembered.

If a man does not keep pace with his companions
Perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer.
Let him step to the music which he hears,
However measured or far away.

—Thoreau

How do you eat this darn thing?

as you are . . .

Got it.

Omigosh, look at these schematics!

You thought you were bad off!

Just one lap and you're refreshed.

I'll never get out of this one . . .

Don't mind her. She always acts this way.

I said there's no more room in the library.

I thought the meet was today . . .

Sure he's taking my picture.

I used to be able to ride one of these things.

It's my turn to drive!

Darn that Vitalis; my hand's stuck.

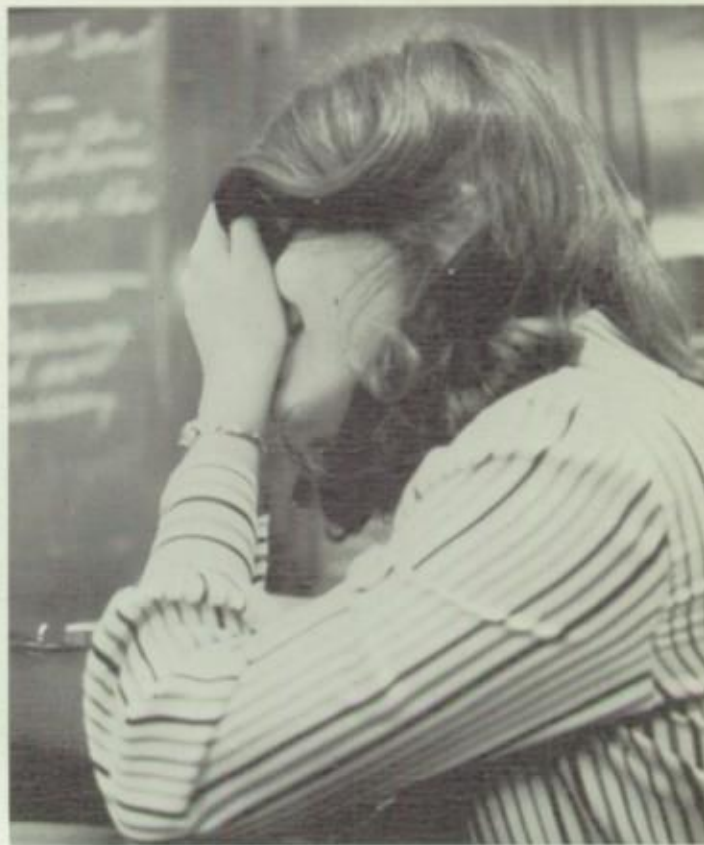

What test did you say you had this period?

Did he really say that!

THE

Board of Education

"I congratulate each of you upon the completion of your high school work. I wish you success in the future. What is success? Is it money, fame, social position, or power?

None of these guarantee success. Only when achievements are based on a foundation of strong character do you know the happiness of true success. Do you know within yourself that you are your own master? If you do, you are a success in your own eyes as well as in the eyes of the world.

When are you sure of success?—not until the end of your life. You must never be satisfied; always aim for something better. I wish for all, success."

Our Principal . . .

Educators plan new systems of pedagogy, but it is the unknown teacher who delivers and guides the young. He awakens sleeping spirits. He quickens the indolent, encourages the eager, and steadies the unstable. Knowledge may be gained from books; but the love of knowledge is transmitted only by personal contact.

Key Club

Key Club, a strictly male service organization at Central, represents the Kiwanis Club, a community service club. Led by Scott Bowen—president, Don Sherman—secretary, Mark Hannon—treasurer, Frank Saraceno—sergeant-at-arms, and Mr. William Ottaviani—club advisor, Key Club has accomplished much. Its program of service are the selling of Christmas candles for the benefit of deaf children, participation in the lick-a-pop campaign and the Youth in Law program. Key Club has sold game tickets, programs, has operated food concession stands at dances and basketball games, and using the profits for school projects.

Panorama Annual

With a heel and a toe ...

... From the halls of the third floor to the jungle called the basement, one room has excelled in its display of panic and confusion. Upon entering its door (an impossibility during homeroom rush hour) our leader, Mr. Bernstein, could often be heard commanding "Listen, homeroom." Those few precious minutes were needed for last minute cramming and necessary troop fluctuation. Often above the din, an editor's futile cries attempted to arouse the masses. But miracles unequalled—from this organized chaos came PANORAMA 1967.

Kathy Zdimal heads the feature staff, having been an active member since 10A. Kathy is a member of Honor Society. She plans to go to college and pursue a career in journalism.
An outstanding figure in the gymnasium, Barbara Heichemer is girls' sports editor. This member of G.A.A. and Pep Club is active in all girls' sports.
Barb even placed first in badminton in a play day. Other activities, such as French Club and Red Cross, occupy Barb's time.

Phillip Sweeney will handle boys' sports. He is president of Debate Club and will be seen as King Arthur in Camelot.
Howard Zendle, advertising editor, has worked on the Pan for two years. Recently, he received the R.P.I. Award for science and mathematics, and is interested in physics. Playing the bass guitar in a band occupies Howie's spare time.
Terri Griffin begins as business manager after serving 2-1/2 years on the feature staff. She is a General Officer of Honor Society, and participates in Pep

Club and intramural sports.
As Pa Central, Jonathan Ostrowsky promises to produce interesting reading. This is Jon's first year on the newspaper. He contributes his time to Lit Club and Chess Club. Jon says that our own Pa Central may be a prominent politician in the future.

January Senior Class

The mind is a storehouse of memories. It holds recollections of our lifetime, the thoughts of our happiness. Perhaps the most vivid of these memories are those of that time when we relinquished our carefree childhood and adopted the responsibilities of maturity—our high school days.

The members of the January 1967 Class have much to recall. Surviving the anxiety and confusion of our sophomore year and reckless comradery of our junior year, we finally "arrived"—we were Seniors, the leaders of Central. We can remember our complaints of overwork, last minute term papers, the agonies of unfinished homework, and worries over college applications. The G.O. Carnival, Central's Golden Jubille, Camelot, sports, clubs, the library, lunchtime, Christmas carols in the halls (and in physics), senior assemblies, and the Senior Prom leave an indelible trace on our memories. Most of all, though, even more than the activities and the places, we remember the people—our friends and companions through all the trials of our school days. These we will view with special fondness.

So, as graduates, we leave B.C.H.S. Although time is the moth that nibbles away at our recollections, it can not devour the memories of the Class of January 1967.

June Senior Class

Years from now Central's halls will still echo the sounds of its past and forgotten students. Some of these echoes will be happy, others sad. Some will be the sounds of the June 1967 graduating class.

Pride, spirit and individualism will be part of our echo.

We munched ice cream sandwiches and laughed in the Senior Honor Studyhall. We danced in gym class to records borrowed from someone's grandmother. Pep rallies were contests between the cheerleaders and a certain section of boys. Even the team shouted their cheer—PRIDE. The library at noon was always silent, as the students were deep in study. The best sound of all was the new three o'clock dismissal bell.

Certain voices still echo through the halls. Candy (Warmonger) Nyswonger's bubbling chatter, Pat Kane's deep, warm laugh, "Camelot's" Melba Reed, Mary Patrick, Bill Lord, Doug Christian, and Phil Sweeney; the entreaties of cheerleaders Kassy Kaschal, Tina Meagher, Judy Coleman, Gail Titus, and Debbie Nordstrom, Sally ("Petula") Clark's "one night stands" in chemistry class—all these will be remembered.

We will associate faces with these sounds. Nick Serafini, Chuck Reutlinger, Gary Walford, Scott Bowen—our basketball players; Dann Lewis and Dan Keane—our G.O. leaders; Roy Sleeper, Bob Kane, and John Cheng—our football heroes; the DATA compilers; lettergirls, colorguards, Bono Shuman—our fashion model, Don Sherman and Pete Nowicki—class cynics who made sure no one got a swelled head; Mary Ryan, Donna Sergi, Barb Heichemer—our sportsday champs; Karen Sedor and the Jolly Green Giant—all these will be remembered.

The years have passed quickly. Soon Central will be behind us—a part of the past. Yet we will always have the work, the fun, the faces, the sounds of Central in our memory.

graduation - - - -

. . . the end . . . or the beginning?

YES . . . AND NO . . .

Graduation is the end of an era in your life.

It's also the beginning of a new era for you . . . a period when the responsibilities of adulthood suddenly appear.

"Bank standing" is something that will help you meet those responsibilities head-on. By doing business with a bank through use of checking, savings, loan or other facilities, you establish the financial reputation and maturity that today's successful person needs.

Throughout your life . . . the only bank you'll ever need is First-City.
